

SPARTANBURG CAMPUS

SCC is headquartered at the Spartanburg Campus, more commonly known as Giles. It can be found off Business I-85 at New Cut Road in historic Spartanburg, SC. This campus houses the College's leadership – including its president, Dr. Michael Mikota, and all of SCC's various student services.

All SCC programs and services are available at this location.

It features one of Spartanburg County's five recognized arboretums.

The Spartanburg (Giles) campus was SCC's very first campus, opening in 1963.
