

Overall Data 2023-2024

Measure of Student Achievement	Description	Source	Threshold	Goal	Performance
Transitional Studies Course Rate	The percentage of students taking below college level Math, English, or Reading courses who received an A, B or C out of all students who received a grade for that term	Institutional Data- Fall 2024	54.6%	64.6%	65% Met the Goal
Fall to Spring Retention	How many students from the closing Fall census (minus high school students) either graduated or stayed enrolled at SCC by the following Spring opening census date	Institutional Data- Fall 2023- Spring 2024	65.2%	75.2%	70.7% Attained
Fall to Fall Retention	How many students from the closing Fall census (minus high school students) either graduated or stayed enrolled at SCC by the following fall opening census date	Institutional Data- Fall 2023- Fall 2024	52.9%	62.9%	58.8% Attained
Completion (SACSCOC measure)	National Clearinghouse Six Year Total Completion Rate	National Clearinghouse (Fall 2017 Entering Cohort)	43.45% (National Benchmark)	Same as National Benchmark	42.72% Not Attained
Licensure Pass Rates	Pass rate for SCTCS COA - selected exams first-time test takers during the period of April 1, 2022 through March 31, 2023.	Institutional Data- 2024 preliminary (2022-23)	84.0%	94.0%	90% Attained

Placement Rate	Number of graduates who were placed in field or continuing their education within 1 year of award date	Institutional Data- 2021-2022	83.5%	93.5%	87% Attained
----------------	--	-------------------------------	-------	-------	--------------

Table 8.1-2 Measure Justification

Measure of Student Achievement	Justification	Connection to Vision, Mission, and Values/ Strategic Plan
Transitional Studies Course Rate	Early success in Math and English is critical to long-term success in college	-Provide an educated community -Empower student success
Fall to Spring Retention	Retention from the first to the second semester is an indicator of short-term student success.	-Provide an educated community -Empower student success
Fall to Fall Retention	Retention from the first to the second fall semester is an indicator of long-term student success.	-Provide an educated community -Empower student success
Completion (SACSCOC Measure)	Consistent successful course completion is necessary for timely progression to degree completion.	-Provide an educated community -Empower student success -Optimize economic competitiveness
Licensure Pass rates	SCC is focused on preparing students for the workplace; licensure pass rates are crucial for success	-Provide an educated community; accelerate economic development -Empower student success -Optimize economic competitiveness
Placement Rate	SCC is an open access institution, so it is appropriate to focus on conversion to provide as many opportunities to prospective students.	-Provide an educated community; accelerate economic development -Empower student success -Optimize economic competitiveness