SCC's AIM Center is a valuable resource for qualified students who need financial assistance and specialized mentoring/tutoring. AIM Center provides personal and career counseling and financial assistance for books, child care, educational materials and city bus tickets to both male and female students who are economically disadvantaged, have limited English proficiency, are single parents (including single pregnant women), displaced homemakers, individuals with disabilities or students enrolled in non-traditional programs.

Those interested can apply by visiting the AIM Center office in the P. Dan Hull Building, room E4 at the central campus in Spartanburg.

AIM Center is a grant-funded program through Carl D. Perkins Career & Technology Education Improvement Act of 2006.

AIM Center goals:

- To increase enrollment and retention in technical education programs by providing services that reduce barriers for eligible economically disadvantaged students
- To provide the assistance necessary to promote learning environments

AIM Center serves:

- Single parents (including single, pregnant women)
- Displaced homemakers
- Individuals with disabilities
- Individuals from economically disadvantaged families
- Students with limited English proficiency
- Men and women entering non-traditional occupations

AIM Center offers:

- Financial assistance for books, childcare, city bus tickets and educational materials
- Career counselling (for both prospective and enrolled students)
- Tutoring/Mentoring
- Information on non-traditional careers

AIM Center workshops:

Student workshops provide helpful information and hands-on activities to prepare for the transition from student to professional.

AIM Center workshops are presented in conjunction with SCC's Career Planning and Placement and Success Network.
